

Professional Catering from Lumi Zi Restaurant

“Serving you from A to Zi”

From corporate lunches, sales meetings, and special company events to private house parties, offsite galas, and more, Lumi Zi' s expert catering arm is ready to support your range of catering needs with the outstanding fare and attentive service that will ensure a professional and elegant affair every time.

Whether you elect to do a quick pick-up of dishes to supplement the menu at your party of event or you require full service complete with a high-end chef, servers, wine, décor, and rental equipment staged at your home or venue, we're able to accommodate your every need and budget.

Features of our professional and comprehensive catering service include:

- Exceptional and upscale food tailored to meet any event theme or culinary preference. Menu options include everything from seasonal fresh fish prepared in a variety of ways to homemade pasta dishes, filet mignon, savory sandwiches, and appealing appetizers plated or served as passed hors d'oeuvres
- Signature desserts such as homemade apple turnovers and artisan cookies handcrafted by our professional pastry chef
- Food conveniently packaged any way you request it, from simple platter pick-up at our restaurant to full delivery to your door and/or onsite service to your guests.
- Ability to provide an acclaimed chef from the local to New York metropolitan area for your onsite event as well as a maître d' and/or a sommelier along with such other special services as wine recommendations, provision of tables, dinnerware, tables cape settings, and more through our experienced network of party planners, service staff, and industry suppliers and professionals
- Customized menu and serviced designed for every event and budget

Looking to provide your audience with fresh, upscale, and delicious homemade food without the chore of making it yourself? Trust our experienced team, managed by longtime catering expert and advanced sommelier Greg Gibbs, to cover your catering needs from A to Zi!
